Left and right brain theory

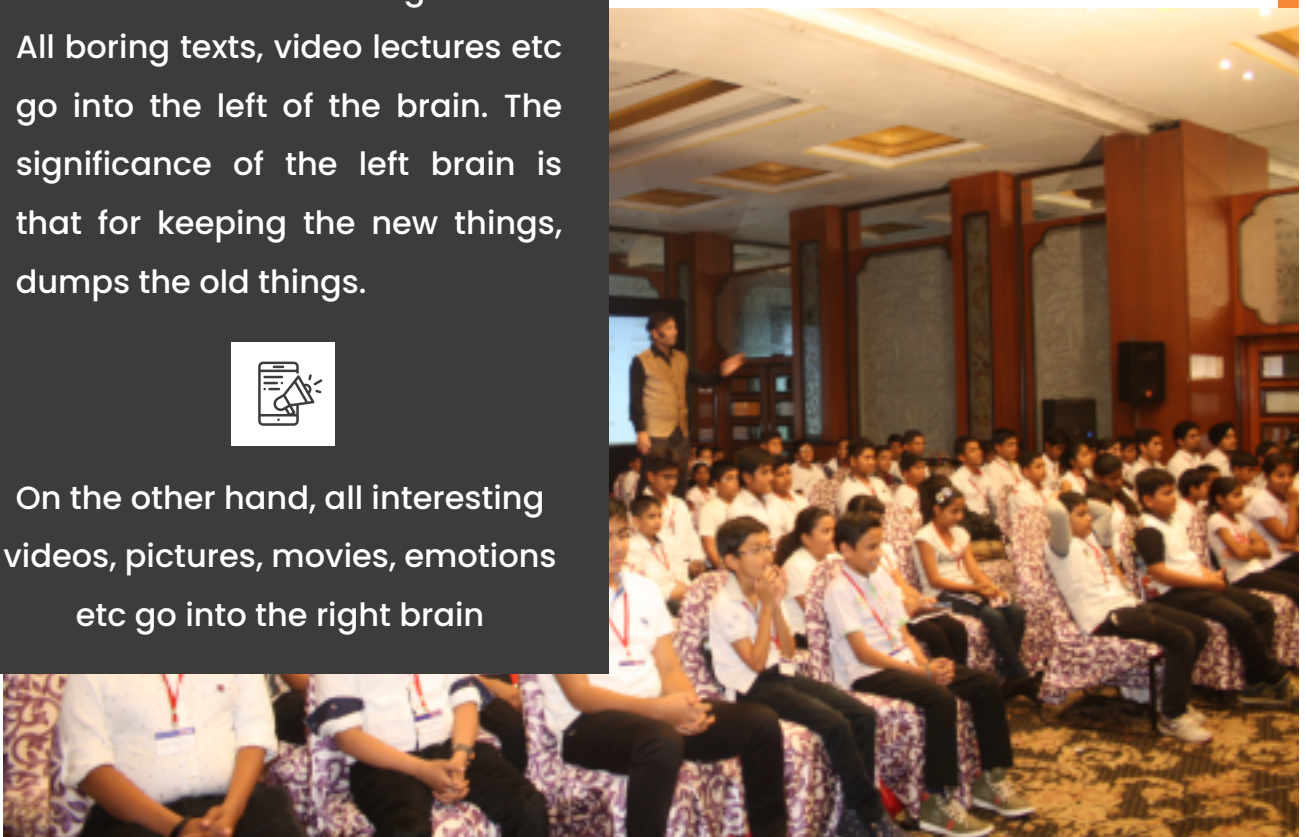

*According to Scientist
"Roger Sperry,"
the Brain has 2 parts:*

The left brain and the right brain. All boring texts, video lectures etc go into the left of the brain. The significance of the left brain is that for keeping the new things, dumps the old things.

On the other hand, all interesting videos, pictures, movies, emotions etc go into the right brain

The essential characteristic of the right brain is, that once a thing has gone into it, never been deleted.
